

Confirmation of Financial Support Form for JLJSP/ CJPN

Independent applicants must demonstrate that they have sufficient financial support for the duration of study at Nagoya University of Foreign Studies (NUFS). In order for NUFS to apply for the Certificate of Eligibility (student visa supporting document) at a local immigration office, you must provide the information stated below. Students not on exchange programs must complete this form as part of the application process.

Please read all sections carefully and have the appropriate persons sign them before returning to NUFS. Photocopies and facsimiles are not acceptable. Original signatures are required. Bank statements or balance sheets should be provided, but they are not sufficient in themselves. Sources of support should carry dates not more than six month old. Whenever monies are indicated, they should be expressed in US dollars. Please note that the minimum expected to be spent during one semester at NUFS is approximately US$8,000 including tuition and living expenses.

Section A
