Let's Reflect Together with International Students!

Passing On Stories of War: A Lecture & Peace Workshop

PART 1 Lecture — Passing On Stories of War

SPEAKER Mr. Yasushi NAKAGAMI

Mr. Yasushi NAKAGAMI, a Nisshin City resident, will share his account of the atomic bombing of Nagasaki. The lecture will be accompanied by consecutive interpretation into English so that international students can fully engage with his story. Together with local community participants, we will reflect on how the experience of war can be passed on to future generations.

PART 2 Peace Workshop

International students will join approximately 30 community participants in small groups for an activity exploring what peace means for the future. Each group will be supported by NUFS student interpreters. In today's globally connected world, this is a valuable opportunity to think about peace from a broader perspective.
