

Now Hiring: Student Assistants (10 International Students)

Join a seven-session seminar with Japanese students to discuss global and social issues, share perspectives, and learn together.

Co-learn. Discuss. Create together.

Participate as a co-learner — not as an English speaker or a cultural representative.

The goal is meaningful communication, shared inquiry, and collaborative learning in English.

Number of Positions

Up to 10 international students

Main Activities

- Discuss social and global issues with Japanese students
- Join small-group inquiry activities
- Share experiences and perspectives
- Collaborate on a mini-project
- Reflect on communication across differences

What We Value

- Your English is valued (Non-Native Speakers of English are welcome)
- Different perspectives are welcome
- Use all available resources to communicate
- Everyone has something to contribute
- No one represents an entire country or culture

Selection

- If we receive more applications than available positions, applicants will be selected.

For more details, please contact the instructor: Prof. Masa MARUYAMA masazumi@nufs.ac.jp

Application Requirements

- International students
- Able to communicate in English
- Interested in discussion and collaboration
- Willing to share your own perspectives
- Comfortable listening to different ideas

Schedule & Format

- 90 minutes × 7 sessions
- Date & Time: 2nd Period, 7 Thursdays of November & December (Nov. 5, 12, 19, 26, Dec. 3, 10, 17)
- Location: Room 245 (Tentative) , Nisshin
- Format: In person
- Activities are completed during class
- No outside preparation is expected

Pay

- Hourly Pay: 1,500 JPY (1 session=90 minutes=¥2,250)
- Approximately 20.42% will be withheld at source)
- Payment details will be described by the instructor

Apply

<https://forms.gle/fgZKfAUHZvLA1tqDA>

